

Graham & Brown flock-effect wallpaper, priced for affordable retail, combines matte and metallic printed patterns of 17th-century inspiration but without the fuzz of real flock. They make a bold statement whether used on one wall or a whole room.

Pattern Perfect

- A minimalist interior can heat up with one or two blasts of pattern on a sofa, wall or chair.
- Big patterns on all walls and ceiling can work in a tiny powder room.
- Just one wall makes a sufficient statement for a larger space.
- Color is one key to the mix of several patterns.

Turkish tiles made in Iznik, Turkey, are available from Ann Sacks. Through your designer.

The classic Egg chair by Danish designer Arne Jacobsen has reappeared in a special fabric designed by Toord Boontje for Kvadrat. At DNA European Design Studio.

Lulu DK teamed up with Mantoux luxury linens for these boudoir pillows that mix patterns beautifully.

