

By Phyllis Van Doren

Coming Soon

Furnishings we saw at furniture fair in New York

harmony in wood

A. Husband and wife Matt and Karen Soorikian collaborate on the design of their Soorikian Furniture. New this year is the Architectural Wall Panel System and the Prima Ballerina Dining Table.

choose and design

B. Mio's sustainable design products involve the user in a little creativity. Bend the Bendant lamp into leaf-like shapes and patterns. At Nest, Little Italy

artisans of peru

C. Rosemary Hallgarten's new alpaca carpets handcrafted in Peru take their inspiration from such things as ribbons fluttering in the wind and ripples in a stream. To-the-trade at Thomas Lavin, Pacific Design Center.

CORK-inlaid pulls

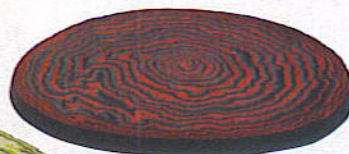

LUMINOUS knobs

green is beautiful

D. Spectra Décor in Seattle creates stylish cabinet hardware in fashion colors. Designed by former jewelers, the eco-friendly company wins design awards for using 100-percent recycled glass, lead-free pewter and environment-friendly cork and eco-resin. www.spectradecor.com

crafts collection

E. Crafts Collection 9 is the latest playful offering from a group of Danish craftspeople who showed their wares at the International Contemporary Furniture Fair in New York City in May. Quality craftsmanship, utility and a dash of humor define the collection. Shown, a few selections. www.craftscollection.dk; pillows at DNA European Design Studio, Little Italy

THE SLICE felt cushions for chairs, benches and garden furniture by Lene Frantzen

PAPER-THIN porcelain bowls by Ane-Katrine von Bulow

GRAPHIC PILLOWS, also come in stripes, by Lisbet Friis

toe tender

F. Nanimarquina is a new collection of incredibly soft textured rugs from Spain. Shown, Fit and Zoom. Shapes and designs tend toward ovoids, squiggles, solids and lots of loopy, wiggly texture. At MOS My Own Space, La Jolla.